Group Discussion Questions

(Read the passage together as a group before discussing the questions)

- 1. How does Paul's expressed desire in verses 10-11 encourage and/or challenge you? What is the difference between knowing Christ experientially and "asking Jesus to come into your life"?

- 2. What does it mean to experience the power of the resurrection? How should we deal with sin if we have given in to it?

- 3. According to Philippians 1:29, is persecution part of God's design for His people? What purpose does persecution play in our lives? How should we respond to it?

- 4. What is one thing or area in your life that you still need to surrender to the Lord? What does it mean to "attain to the resurrection from the dead"?

- 5. What stood out to you from the text or message that you would like to explore further? What will you do to apply this message this week?
